[*Atchafalaya]

[Verse 1]

E7

On the back Bayou in a Okeana

E7

My baby's cooking - in the kitchen - in cutoff jeans

got her hair pulled back in a red bandanna

E7

She makes the meanest chicken gumbo west of New Orleans (thats right)

B7

Right now I'm jammin with the boys in the band

A

but my heart still down in... Louisiane

[Verse 2]

I got friends that stay on a-cha-fee-ya* spillway.

They got Dixie in the cooler crawfish in a pot... yeah

(A) Everybody comes around - after church - on Sunday

They dance to the music of the Zydeco Dots

Might be - rock'n 'n roll'n in Alabam

but my heart still down in... Louisiane...

[Bridge]

(A) Yeah I got a one night stand in Austin

(A) state fair in Tennessee

From Bakers Street and Muscle Shoals.

Selling T-Shirts and CD's

Working my way - across this promise land... yeah

but my heart still down in... Louisiane... ah ah yeah

[solo]

[Verse 3]

One of these days I'm gonna get back home

Get a house on a levee and a fee row boat

(A) I put money - in a - bank and kids in the - yard

and I'll be a - star like a Alligator - Bar

Been to - bama, - Atlanta, - Birmingham

but my heart still down in... Louisiane...

[Bridge]

(A) Yeah I got a one night stand in Austin

(A) state fair in Tennessee

From Bakers Street and Muscle Shoals.

Selling T-Shirts and CD's

Working my way - across this promise land... yeah

but my heart still down in... Louisiane... ah ah yeah

[Outro]

B7

If thats where I go - you know where I'm going cause my heart still down in... Louisiane...

(E7) one time then stop on E7
