[Angel From Montgomery - Verse 1]

D G

I am an old woman

D G

Named after my mother

D G

My old man is another

A D

Child that's grown old

[Angel From Montgomery - Verse 2]

D G

If dreams were thunder

D G

And lightnin' was desire

D G

This old house would have burnt down

A D

Ooh a long time ago

[Angel From Montgomery - Chorus]

D C G D

Make me an angel, that flies from Montgomery

D C G D

Make me a poster, of an old rodeo

D C G D

Just give me one thing, Lord , that I can hold onto

D C G D

To believe in this living is just a hard way to go

[Angel From Montgomery - Interlude]

D – G [3x]

[Angel From Montgomery - Verse 3]

D G

When I was a young girl

D G

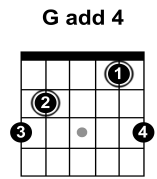

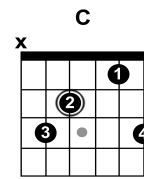

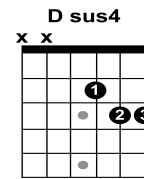

Oh I had me a cowboy

D G

He wasn't much to look at

A D

Just a free ramblin' man

[Angel From Montgomery - Verse 4]

D G

Oh, but that was such a long time

D G

And no matter how I try

D G

Those years they just flow by

A D

Like a broken-down dam

[Angel From Montgomery - Chorus]

D C G D

Make me an angel, that flies from Montgomery

D C G D

Make me a poster, of an old rodeo

D C G D

Just give me one thing, Lord , that I can hold onto

D C G D

There's flies in the kitchen

D G

I can hear all their buzzin'

D G

But I ain't done nothin

A D

Since I woke up today

[Angel From Montgomery - Verse 6]

D G
How the hell can a person

D G
Go to work in the morning

D G
And come home in the evening

A D
And have nothin' to say?

[Angel From Montgomery - Chorus]

D C G D
Make me an angel, that flies from Montgomery

D C G D
