[Intro]

Em D C Em

Em Well I've walked these streets a virtual stage it seemed to me.
C Make-up on their faces, actors took their place next to me.
Em Well I've walked these streets in a Carnival of sites to see.
C All the cheap thrill seekers; the vendors and the dealers they crowded around me

[Chorus]

G Have I been blind
D Have I been lost inside myself and my own mind
C Hypnotized, Mesmerized
Em By what my eyes hhaavvee seen

Em I've walked these streets in a spectacle of wealth and poverty
C In the diamond market the scarlet welcome carpet that they've just rolled out for me.
Em And I've walked these streets in the madhouse asylum they can be
C where a wild eyed misfit profit traffic island stopped and he raved of saving me.

[Chorus [above]]

[Chorus 2]

G Have I been wrong
D Have I been wise to shut my eyes and play along
C Hypnotized, Paralyzed
Em By what my eyes have found,
C By what my eyes have seen
Em What they've seen

[Instrumental]

[Outro]

G Have I been blind, have I been lost
G Have I been wrong, have I been wise, have I been strong
G Have I been? Hypnotized, Mesmerized
C By what my eyes have found
Em In that great street carnival
G Have I been blind, have I been lost
G Have I been wrong, have I been wise, have I been strong
G Have I been? Hypnotized, Mesmerized
C By what my eyes have found
Em In that great street carnival
Em In that Carnival
