[Intro]

F#m – E – D – F#m

F#m Well I've walked these streets a virtual stage it seemed to me.
 D Make-up on their faces, actors took their place next to me.
 F#m Well I've walked these streets in a Carnival of sites to see.
 D All the cheap thrill seekers; the vendors and the dealers they crowded around me

[Chorus 1]

A Have I been blind
 E Have I been lost inside myself and my own mind
 D Hypnotized, Mesmerized
 F#m By what my eyes hhaavvee seen

F#m I've walked these streets in a spectacle of wealth and poverty
 D In the diamond market the scarlet welcome carpet that they've just rolled out for me.
 F#m And I've walked these streets in the madhouse asylum they can be D where a wild eyed misfit profit traffic island stopped and he raved of saving me.

[Chorus 1 [above]]

[Chorus 2]

A Have I been wrong
 E Have I been wise to shut my eyes and play along
 D Hypnotized, Paralyzed
 F#m By what my eyes have found,
 D By what my eyes have seen
 F#m What they've seen

[Instrumental] [2x]

F#m – F#m – E – E | D – D F#m – F#m

[Chorus 3]

A Have I been blind, have I been lost
 A Have I been wrong, have I been wise, have I been strong
 A Have I been? Hypnotized, Mesmerized
 D By what my eyes have found
 F#m In that great street carnival

[Closing Chorus 4]

A Have I been blind, have I been lost
 A Have I been wrong, have I been wise, have I been strong
 A Have I been? Hypnotized, Mesmerized
 D By what my eyes have found
 F#m In that great street carnival
