[Spoken Words - 1]

One night our band had a show to play
So we carried our gear and as we were walking
We came upon a old wooden bridge
As we took a step on the bridge
Out - stepped - a troll

[Spoken Words - 2]

The troll said "I sure would dig hearing you all play a little bit"
I said "We can't just plug up and play it right here on this bridge"
The troll said "Why?"
And I go "Cause"
But the troll said "PLAY!"

And that's what we did ...

[Verse 2]

Well the wind was howling at the night
And the moon was covered up with clouds
I was walking cross a bridge, on a dirt road
When I heard a troll growl
He said don't you go walking cross my bridge
I'm gonna make it tough on you
I will give you swamp fever
You'll be wondering if you're you

[Chorus]

Yeah, you know you got to pay the toll
Cause, even trolls love rock and roll

[Verse 3]

E

Wooo we will keep you up all night

Drinking and carrying on

E

Get me to the swamp music

E

Get it on - Get it on

[Chorus]

Yeah, you know you got to pay the toll
Cause, even trolls love rock and roll

[Solo]

[Spoken Words - 3]

The troll said "Looks! He says, you boy's just ain't getting it"
I said "Damn man were playing our guts out."
He said "You mind if I showed you a lick or two?"

Well seeing we never heard a troll play.
We let him have it.

And he goes like this - right here.

[Solo - Gritty troll solo]

Damn troll

[Chorus]

Yeah, you know you got to pay the toll
Cause, even trolls love rock and roll
