[Spoken Words - 1]

One time I had this little band back home
A rock and roll band
And we was going to play this job one night
And it weren't too far away
So we was walking
Well we came upon a long black stretch of woods
Had an old river running through it
And an old wooden bridge across the river
Well just as I was about to step up on the bridge
Out - stepped the troll
An al'mighty troll

[Spoken Words - 2]

The troll said "Hey, looks like you all are going to play somewhere"
I said "Yes sir" Because you always want to say "yes sir" to a troll
He said "Look uh, like I hate to mess up your boys job...
... but I sure could dig hearing you all play a little bit"
I said "Man we can't just plug up and play it right here upon the bridge"
He said "Why?"
And I go "Cause"
But he troll said "Play!"

And that's what we did ...

[Verse 2]

Well the wind was howling at the night
And the moon was covered up with clouds
I was walking cross a bridge, on a dirt road
When I heard a troll growl
He said don't you go walking cross my bridge
I'm gonna make it tough on you
I will give you swamp fever
You'll be wondering if you're you

[Chorus]

Yeah, you know you got to pay the toll
Cause, even trolls love rock and roll

[Verse 3]

E

Wooo we will keep you up all night

Drinking and carrying on

E

Get me to the swamp music

E

Get it on - Get it on

[Chorus]

Yeah, you know you got to pay the toll
Cause, even trolls love rock and roll

[Spoken Words - 3]

But he troll said "Looks! He says, you boy's just ain't getting it"
I said "Damn man were playing our guts out."
He said "You mind if I borrowed that old guitar. And showed you a lick"
Well seeing we never heard a troll play.
We let him have it.

And he goes like this - right here.

[Solo - Gritty troll solo]

Damn troll

[Chorus]

Yeah, you know you got to pay the toll
Cause, even trolls love rock and roll

[Solo - Gritty troll solo]
