

Key: A Strum: Base – Down – Down (waltz)

[Intro]

A

[Verse 1]

A
 My father is one of the greats to ever step on a stage
 D
 My mother has the most beautiful voice in the world A
 E
 And I am betwixt and between
 A
 Sean Lennon, you know what I mean D
 E
 Born to the manor, never quite clamoring free A

[Chorus]

E A
 It's fa—m--ily
 E A
 It's fa—m--ily

[Verse 2]

A
 My elder sister is prettier then you believe
 D
 my younger sister is prettier still and sing. A
 E
 And I am the middle child
 A
 the boy with red hair and no smile D
 E
 not to secure very unsure of who to be A

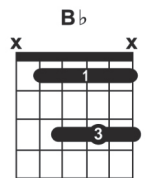

[Chorus]

E A
 It's fa—m--ily
 E A
 It's fa—m--ily

[Break]

C–B $\flat$  C–B $\flat$  C–B $\flat$  E

E A W000000

[Verse 3]

A
 My grandmother gave me all the love that she had
 D
 She lived for us kids, never a thought for herself A
 E
 but she never dealt with her pain
 A
 yeah and I've done exactly the same D
 E
 pushing it down while trying to drown it away A

[Chorus]

E A
 It's fa—m--ily
 E A
 It's fa—m--ily

E A W000000

[Verse 4]

A
 I've come very close - to a family of my own
 D
 I thought I could just let it come to me as I am A
 E
 but you got to know how to choose
 A
 happiness - over the blues D
 E
 light over dark - willing to start something new A

[Chorus]

E A
 It's fa—m--ily
 E A
 It's fa—m--ily

E A W000000