[Intro]

[Verse 1]

D A7 D G
First date, first kiss, first taste of lovin'
D A7 D A7
You were, my first cousin

[Verse 2]

D A7 D G
We got, in big trouble, your dad my uncle
D A7 D D7
cause you were, my first cousin

[Bridge]

G Bm
Now I see you across the room damn your sweet perfume
G A
these family reunions

[Verse 3]

D A7 D G
In the back seat, of that regal, what we did was illegal
D A D
cause you were, my first cousin

[Verse 4]

D A D G
Now the love of, my life, will never be my wife
D A
but you'll always, be my first D7 G
and I'll always be your first D A7 G D
and our children will be second cousins
