[Verse 1]

F G C F Am G
The color of the sky as far as I can see... its coal gray
F G C F Am G
Lift my head from the pillow and then... fall again
F G Am G
Shiver in my bones just thinking, about the weather
C F Am G
Quiver in my lip as if... I might cry

[Verse 2]

F G C F Am G
By the force of will my lungs are filled... and, so I breathe
F G C F Am G
Lately it seems this big bed is where... I never leave
F G Am G
Shiver in my bones just thinking, about the weather
C F Am G
Quiver in my voice... as I cry

[Chorus]

C F G
What a cold and lonely, rainy day
C F G
Where on earth is the sun hid away?

[Verse 3]

F G C F Am G
I hear the sound of a noon bell chime well... I'm far behind
F G C F Am G
You put in 'bout half a day... while here I lie
F G Am G
With shiver in my bones just thinking, about the weather
C F Am G
A Quiver in my lip as if... I might cry

[Chorus]

C F G
What a cold and lonely, rainy day
C F G
Where on earth is the sun hid away?

Bridge:

G
Do I need someone here to scold me?
F
Or do I need someone, who'll grab and pull me out of G F C
Four poster, dull torpor, pulling downward
C F G
For it's such a long time... since my better days
C F G
I say my prayers nightly,... this will pass away

[Verse 4]

F G C F Am G
The color of the sky is gray as I can see... through the blinds
F G C F Am G
Lift my head from the pillow and then... fall again
F G Am G
Shiver in my bones just thinking, about the weather
C F Am G
Quiver in my voice as... I might cry

Solo

F – Am – F – C | Am – Am – C – G

[Chorus]

C F G a cold and rainy day
C F G
Where on earth is the sun... hid away?
C F G
A cold and rainy day
C F G
I shiver, quiver, and try to wake
