```
Key: Cm Notes: Use bar chords. Rhythm is a laid back minor shuffle. /= Slide-up
                                                                                                                    Cm
                                                            [Chorus]
[Intro]
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                       [2x]
                                                              Ab Eb
                                                                        Eb/F
                                                                                                                  80
                                                                                And I want her
                                                                                                                    Еb
[Verse 1]
                                                                        Eb/F
Cm E^{\flat} B^{\flat} B^{\flat} /Cm
                                                                                want her so much
                                                                           ı
                    Oh my lord
                                                            Cm Bb
                                                                    G
                                                                       F/G
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                                                                 99
                                                                                [[Pause]]
                     (she) give me chills and fever
                                                                                Cause she got the lover's touch
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                            Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                    Sends a signal
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                                                                  60
                    to my receiver
                                                        [Solo 2]
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                                                                   Cm11
                                                                            Yes, she does
                    Hard living
Cm E^{\flat} B^{\flat} B^{\flat} / Cm
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                                [5x]
                    killing me
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                  I need that woman
                                                       [Verse 3]
Cm E^{\flat} B^{\flat} B^{\flat} / Cm
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                    (to) set me free
                                                          I hear her voice
                                                          Cm E^{\flat} B^{\flat} B^{\flat} / Cm
    [Chorus]
                                                        When I'm all alone
    F Ab Eb Eb/F
                                                         Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                        And I want her
                                                        Gives me comfort
                Eb/F
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                        want her so much
                                                           So soft and low
    Cm Bb
            G F/G
                        [[Pause]]
                        Cause she got the lover's touch
                                                            [Chorus]
    Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                             Ab Eb
                                                                        Eb/F
                                                                                And I want her
                                                                  Еb
                                                                        Eb/F [Solo]
                                                                                want her so much
                                                                           ı
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                            Cm Bb G F/G
                     Yes, she does
                                                                                [[Pause]]
                                                                                                                    С
                                                                                Cause she got the lover's touch
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                                                                    Ø
                                                                                                                 80
[Verse 2]
                                                       Cm E^{\flat} B^{\flat} B^{\flat} /Cm
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                                                                    Bb
                                                                             Yes, she does, now
   Feel sold out
                                                        Cm Eb Bb
                                                                    Bb / Cm
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
   Water getting higher
                                                                            want her so much
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
   Living on the shoreline
                                                                             Yeah
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
   Staring at the fire
                                                                  Cause she got the lover's touch
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
                                                                            She got the lover's touch
                                                         Yes, she does [Close]
                                                        Cm Eb Bb Bb/Cm
```