[Verse 1] D G Well, you wake up in the mornin, you hear the work bell ring, A7 And they march you to the table to see the same old thing. G Ain't no food upon the table, and no pork up in the pan. A7 But you better not complain, boy, you get in trouble with the man

G D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
A7 D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
G D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
A7 D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
D
Let the midnight special shine a everlovin light on me

[Verse 1]

D
G
O
Yonder come Miss Rosie, how in the world did you know?

A7
D
By the way she wears her apron, and the clothes she wore.

G
Umbrella on her shoulder, piece of paper in her hand;

A7
D
She come to see the govnor', she wants to free her man

G D

Let the midnight special shine a light on me,

A7 D

Let the midnight special shine a light on me,

G D

Let the midnight special shine a light on me,

A7 D

Let the midnight special shine a light on me,

D

Let the midnight special shine a everlovin light on me

[Verse 3]

D
G
If you're ever in Houston, well, you better do the right;

A7
D
You better not gamble, there, you better not fight, at all
G
Or the sheriff will grab ya and the boys will bring you down

A7
D
The next thing you know, boy, oh! You're prison bound

G
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
A7
D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
G
D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
A7
D
Let the midnight special shine a light on me,
D
Let the midnight special shine a everlovin light on me

This works really well in drop D if you hit the bass note of the D chord in the intro but you'd have to play the G like this:

e |-3-|
B |-0-|
G |-0-|
D |-0-|
A |-5-|
D |-5-|
Old video of Creedence playing this, I think they are all D-tuned and it is played E, A B7.

* Alternate:

Capo: 2nd Fret

D = C

G = F

A7 = G7
