[Chorus]

I never thought too much on wealth
 To let me keep it for myself
 But while the world's been turning upside-down
 It's hard to talk about
 Another bottle off the shelf
 With the hand that you've been dealt
 What's going wrong is been going on
 It's time for you to scream and shout

[Verse 1]

And I ain't no prophet
 To cure some damn disease
 And would you help me anyway
 If I was on my knees?
 I'm going through my time of change
 In my time of need
 And every little thing is gonna
 Be all the same

[Chorus]

[Interlude] [Single Strum with pauses]

G – F69

[Verse 2]

I went to that corner store
 To get myself a bottle of beer
 I was rollin' with a friend of mine
 When the liquor was a little more clear
 I always knew what I wanted from the start
 Was a reason just to get out late
 A drinkin' early was a dream for the summertime
 Music, and my sweet, Mary Jane

[Chorus]

I never thought too much on wealth
 To let me keep it for myself
 But while the world's been turning upside-down
 It's hard to talk about

[Interlude/Solo] [Single Strum with pauses]

G – F69 [4x]

[Chorus]

What's going wrong is been going on
 It's time for you to scream and shout
 It's time for you to scream and shout
 It's time for you to scream and shout

[Closing] [Single Strum with pauses]

G – F69 [2x]

[Ending]

G – F69 – Cadd9 – G [2x]
